

Welcome to

The Baltic Seas International Maritime Conference

- European Maritime Research
from Adriatic to Baltic

24th - 25th September 2019, University of Turku, Finland.

The Baltic Seas International Maritime Conference organized by the University of Turku, Kotka Maritime Research Centre and the University of Le Havre invites all interested participants from across the globe to submit papers or abstracts and present the latest scientific developments.

Join and share the latest innovations and developments in maritime studies, technological advancements, sea borne logistics, and port operations. The event is a unique experience to exchange ideas and encourage collaboration with colleagues from academia.

The Baltic Seas conference welcomes abstract submission on the designated fields. All abstracts are single-blind peer reviewed and they should be 1 pages in length.

Abstracts may be submitted to balticseas@utu.fi until 15th May 2019 and the notification of acceptance will be delivered 20th June 2019.

They will be published as an abstract book with an ISBN number in the publication series of Centre for Maritime Studies.
